

For the first page, I decided to add column names to make it more obvious what is in each column, as well as showing the start and end dates in each column and adding a View Button so users can view the Term Info.

The Add and Edit Term Pages match what is shown here, and View Term follows a similar layout to these pages. The app matches these wireframes with the changes listed above.